MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 30, 2019
FROM: Jon Comer, Awards Committee Chair
TO: Geography students and Secondary Social Studies Education majors
RE: Jerry Croft and Family Award in Geography Education

The department is pleased to announce the Jerry Croft and Family Award in Geography Education, an award funded by Jerry and Laurie Croft and friends of their family for the purpose of recognizing students with an interest in promoting and pursuing geographic education. The award is open to all students (undergraduate and graduate) in Geography as well as secondary Social Studies Education with a focus in Geography. A single award will be made for the 2019-2020 academic year of up to $1,400.

To be eligible, students must be enrolled full-time and be in good academic standing. Interested students may apply by submitting a one page summary of their plans for teaching Geography plus a current resume or CV (Word documents via e-mail) to the Chair of the Geography Awards Committee by 4 PM on Friday, February 8, 2019 for consideration. Awards will be announced at the annual Department of Geography Awards Ceremony on May 3, 2019.
